Instructions for DC-8379 Injured Spouse Allocation

Purpose of form

DC-8379 is filed by one spouse/registered domestic partner (the injured spouse/registered domestic partner) on a jointly filed tax return when the joint overpayment was (or is expected to be) applied (offset) to a past-due obligation of the other spouse/registered domestic partner. By filing DC-8379, the injured spouse/registered domestic partner may be able to get back his or her share of the joint refund.

Are you an injured spouse?

You may be an injured spouse if you file a joint return and all or part of your portion of the overpayment is expected to be, offset to your spouse's legally enforceable past-due federal tax, state income tax, state unemployment compensation debts, child support, or a federal nontax debt, such as a student loan.

A Notice of Offset for federal tax debts is issued by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). All other Notice of Offsets are issued by the DC Office of Tax and Revenue (OTR) on behalf of the affected agency.

Complete Part I to determine if you are an injured spouse/registered domestic partner.

When to file

You must file the DC-8379 with your return. In order to be eligible for this relief. You must submit your completed D-8379 prior to the offset occurring. Once funds have been offset, this relief may be unavailable.

How to file

You can file DC-8379 with your joint tax return. If you file DC-8379 with your joint return, attach it to your return. The processing of DC-8379 may be delayed if the form is incomplete when filed.
