PENALTIES AND INTEREST

- A late payment penalty at the rate of 5 percent per month (limited to a 25 percent maximum) will be assessed on the unpaid taxes.
- Interest at the rate of 10 percent per year, compounded daily, will be assessed on any tax which remains unpaid after the due date of the return without regard to any extension of time for filing the return. Interest on a late payment is computed from the due date of the return to the date when the tax is paid.
- A substantial valuation misstatement penalty may be applied if there is an understatement of the tax liability greater than $5,000 (or greater than $10,000 for corporations) that is attributable to a valuation misstatement.
- The valuation misstatement is substantial if the amount determined to be the correct valuation is 200% or more than the amount reported on your return. The penalty is equal to 20% of the underpayment attributable to the misstatement.
- The valuation misstatement is a gross misstatement if the amount determined to be the correct valuation is 400% or more than the amount reported on your return. The penalty is equal to 40% of the underpayment attributable to the misstatement.

MAILING INSTRUCTIONS

Make the check or money order payable to the D.C. Treasurer. To insure proper credit to your account, please indicate on your payment that it is for the "Rolling Stock Tax". Mail the payment and the return to the Office of Tax and Revenue, P.O. Box 556, Washington, D.C. 20044-0556.
