Who must file a Form D-20?

Generally, every corporation must file a Form D-20 (including small businesses, professional and S corporations) if it is carrying on or engaging in any trade, business, or commercial activity in DC or receiving income from DC sources, including activities in DC that benefit an affiliated entity of the taxpayer.

- You do not have to file if the corporation has been granted an exemption. If you are an exempt organization with unrelated business income, as defined in Internal Revenue Code (IRC) §512, you must file a Form D-20, by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your tax year. You are required to pay the $100 minimum tax.
- Your corporation's activities in DC conducted by your employees or through agents or other representatives, determine if you are carrying on or engaging in a trade or business in DC.
- Corporate general and limited partners of a partnership that files a Form D-30 Unincorporated Business Franchise Tax Return are considered to be engaging in a trade or business and are required to file a Form D-20. Use Line 24 (Other Deductions) to deduct the corporate partner's distributive share of income on which the unincorporated business paid tax.

If you perform services in DC for subsidiary corporations, you are carrying on a trade or business. Dividends you receive from subsidiaries are business income subject to taxation.

A corporation is required to file a Form D-20 if it:

- Has or maintains an office, warehouse, or other place of business in DC; or
- Has an officer, agent, or other representative with an office or other place of business in DC.

The words "trade or business" do not include sales of tangible personal property by a corporation if the corporation:

- Does not have or maintain an office, warehouse, or other place of business in DC;
- Does not have goods in DC in a warehouse or on consignment (or similar agreement); and
- Does not have an officer, agent, or other representative with an office or other place of business in DC.

A corporation that engages an independent agent or representative who solicits orders in DC for more than one principal and who holds himself/herself out as such must file a DC Form D-20.

Treat income from sales of tangible personal property to the United States Government as income from a DC source unless the:

- Corporation's principal place of business is outside DC;
- Property is delivered from outside DC; and
- Property is for use outside DC.

It is not necessary for a corporation to have an office or other place of business in DC in order to be required to file a DC franchise tax return. You must file a D-20 return if you:

- Derive income from work done or services performed in DC;
- Derive income from any type of activity in DC, including sales of tangible personal property; or
- Receive income from DC sources.

An organization recognized as exempt from DC taxes must, in order to maintain its DC tax-exempt status, send a copy of its IRS Form 990, 990PF, or 990EZ to: Office of Tax and Revenue, PO Box 556, Washington DC 20044-0556. If you are a Political Action Committee (see IRC §527), your taxable income is subject to tax as described, without regard to a specific deduction. Report this tax on Form D-20; the minimum tax requirement of $100 applies.

When and where should you file your Form D-20?

You must file your return and pay any tax due by:

- Calendar year filer – March 15th, or
- Fiscal year filer – the fifteenth day of the third month after the tax year closes.
- If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the return is due the next business day.

Mail the return and payment to the Office of Tax and Revenue, PO Box 679, Washington DC 20044-0679. Make the check or money order payable to the DC Treasurer. Write your FEIN, D-20 and the tax year on the payment. Staple your payment to the form D-2030P.

Extension of time to file

You may request an extension of time to file your return by filing DC Form FR-128 (copy included) by the return due date. An extension of time to file is not an extension of time to pay. You must pay any tax liability with the extension request, otherwise, the request will be denied. Do not use the federal extension form for DC tax purposes.

How can you avoid penalties and interest?

To avoid penalties and interest, file your return on time

The Office of Tax and Revenue (OTR) charges a 5 percent per-month penalty for failure to file a return or pay any tax due on time. The penalty is calculated on the unpaid tax for each month or part of a month that the return is not filed or the tax is not paid. The maximum penalty is an additional amount equal to 25 percent of the tax due.

You will be charged interest of 10 percent per year, compounded daily, on any tax not paid on time. Interest is calculated from the due date of the return to the date the tax is paid. Interest accrues on any underpayment of tax even if you have an extension to file your return.

Electronic filing required

If your quarterly tax liability exceeds $25,000, you must file estimated tax payments electronically. See www.taxpayerservicecenter.com.

Underpayment penalties

There are penalties for underpayment of tax due to negligence, substantial understatement of franchise tax liability and substantial valuation misstatement.

- Negligence is a failure to make a reasonable attempt to comply with tax provisions or a failure to exercise ordinary and reasonable care in return preparation without intent to defraud.
- A substantial understatement of franchise tax liability occurs when the understatement is more than the greater of 10 percent of the tax liability on the return for the tax year or $4,000.

The penalty is an additional amount equal to 20 percent of the portion due to negligence.

- A valuation misstatement is substantial, if the correct valuation differs by 200 percent or more from the return's tax liability. This penalty is an additional amount equal to 20 percent of the underpayment.
- A valuation misstatement is gross if the correct valuation differs by 400 percent or more from the amount shown on the return. This penalty is an additional amount equal to 40 percent of the underpayment due to the misstatement.

Underpayment of estimated tax

OTR will charge 10 percent per year, compounded daily, on underpayments of estimated franchise tax installment payments. The charge is computed from the installment payment due date to the date paid. It is in addition to the penalty imposed for false statements. This penalty will be automatically assessed by OTR's integrated tax system. For additional information, see Form D-2220, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Franchise Tax Filers. If you complete a Form D-2220, attach it to your D-20.

Paid tax preparer penalty

Penalties ranging from $50 to $1000 each are assessed if a paid tax preparer:

- Prepares a return or refund claim based on an unrealistic position;
- Should have known the applicable law or regulation;
- Does not adequately disclose to OTR in the return relevant facts for the position;
- Willfully attempts to understate tax liability; or
- Fails to sign a return or refund claim.

Charge for dishonored checks

You will be charged $65 if your check is returned to us.

Fraud penalty

We will add a 75 percent penalty for fraud. If any part of an underpayment is due to fraud, we will presume the entire underpayment is due to fraud. You have the burden of proof to show that it is not due to fraud.

Which other DC forms may corporations need to file?

Qualified high technology companies (QHTC)

If you are a QHTC, you may be eligible for additional tax credits. You must file the supporting forms to be eligible for these credits. For forms and details, see the publication FR-399 Qualified High Technology Companies. This publication is available at www.taxpayerservicecenter.com. If you are a QHTC, fill in the QHTC oval on page 1 of the Form D-20 and attach the QHTC-CERT form.

Consolidated Returns

Corporations in an affiliated group, as defined in IRC §1504(b), may file a Form D-20 and report the consolidated DC taxable income of all group members. If a group has elected to file a federal consolidated return and their election is revoked or terminated, the DC election will be automatically revoked or terminated. In tax years after a group files a consolidated return, any corporation with income from DC sources that becomes a group member is deemed to have waived any objection to filing a consolidated DC return. All affiliated group members are jointly and severally liable for the taxes, interest, and penalties that apply to the group. We may require a consolidated DC return to be filed to prevent tax evasion or to properly reflect the taxable income attributable to business conducted in DC.

If a corporation belongs to an affiliated group for part of a year, include its DC income during the time it belonged.

To file a DC consolidated return, the affiliated group must:

- File a federal consolidated return under IRC §1501.
- Complete Forms D-20 C, Election to File a Consolidated Corporation Franchise Tax Return and D-20 AG, Affiliated Group Schedule. Each member of a DC affiliated group must have income from DC sources and complete a Form D-20 CS, Authorization and Consent of a Subsidiary Corporation to be included in a Consolidated Corporation Franchise Tax Return. These forms are included in this booklet. Attach the forms to your D-20 return.

A company claiming QHTC tax benefits cannot be part of a DC consolidated tax return.

Eliminate all intercompany transactions before determining DC apportionment factors. An intercompany transaction is one between corporations belonging to the same DC affiliated group immediately before and after the transaction. Use IRC regulations under §1.1502 et seq. and interpretations about intercompany transactions to determine the DC affiliated group's taxable income.

Any deferred gain, loss or deduction from a prior transaction with a DC affiliated group member becomes taxable if that member ceases membership in the group or the asset is transferred to a corporation that is not a member of the DC group.

Prepare all supplementary and supporting schedules in column form, one column for each corporation. On the supporting schedules, include columns for: totals of like items before adjustments are made; intercompany transaction eliminations and adjustments; and totals of like items after giving effect to eliminations and adjustments.

If you file a DC consolidated return, fill in the consolidated return oval on page 1 of the D-20. Using the D-20 AG, provide a list of all DC affiliates in the consolidated filing group and their Federal Employer Identification Numbers (FEIN). Attach the D-20 AG to the D-20. List separate computations for D-20, Lines 1 - 36 for each affiliate. The separate computation should reflect the elimination of intercompany transactions.

Explanation of terms

Business income

This is income from transactions and activities in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business. It includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management and disposition of the property are part of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations. Income of any type — manufacturing income, compensation for services, sales income, interest, dividends, rents, royalties, gains, operating and non-operating income from any class or from any source — is business income if it is from transactions and activities occurring in the regular course of a trade or business. Whether income is business or non-business depends on the underlying transactions and activities — the elements of a particular trade or business. In general, all transactions and activities that depend on or contribute to the operation of your economic enterprise constitute your trade or business. Transactions and activities are those arising in the regular course of business and constituting integral parts of the trade or business.

Commercial domicile

The principal place from which you direct or manage your trade or business.

Compensation

Wages, salaries, commissions and other forms of remuneration paid or accrued to employees for personal services.

Non-business income

All income except business income.

Transportation company

Any business engaged in transporting persons, goods, or property of others for hire.

Sales

All gross receipts, including dividends, interest and royalties, which are not required to be allocated.

Taxable in another state

For purposes of allocating and apportioning income among DC and other jurisdictions, you must be subject to:

- a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income;
- a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business; or
- a corporate stock tax in that other jurisdiction.

General Instructions

IMPORTANT

Special rules on depreciation

You may not claim 30 or 50 percent federal bonus depreciation or the additional expenses allowed in IRC §179 on your DC tax return. For federal tax purposes, businesses may deduct additional bonus depreciation and §179 expenses. DC does not allow additional depreciation or additional expenses for IRC §179. DC limits IRC §179 expense deductions to $25,000 ($40,000 for QHTCs).

Office of Tax and Revenue rulings

On July 1, 2002, the Office of Tax and Revenue (OTR) announced that it was reviewing rulings related to certain DC taxes. These included: income tax; franchise tax; personal property tax; sales tax; gross receipts tax; and withholding tax. The review did not include: excise tax; real property; or tax-exempt status rulings.

From July 1, 2002 – December 31, 2002, OTR reviewed letter rulings and any OTR rulings submitted by taxpayers who had received rulings and intended to use them for tax years beginning after December 31, 2002. Generally, rulings not submitted to OTR were revoked as of December 2002. Direct any rulings questions to OTR, General Counsel at (202) 442-6500 or by e-mail to OTRRuling@dc.gov.

Net operating loss (NOL) carrybacks

For federal tax purposes, businesses are allowed to carry back a NOL to each of the five tax years before the tax year of the loss. DC does not allow NOL carrybacks. Do not claim a carryback for DC tax purposes.

Amended returns

You must use the Form D-20 for the year you are amending. If the return is for 2001 or later, fill in the Amended Return oval on page 1 of the D-20 and complete the Tax Year Ending box. Attach a detailed statement of adjustment(s). Note: Form D-2030X is obsolete for tax years after 2000.

If the IRS adjusts your federal return or if you file an amended federal return, you must file a separate amended DC return within 90 days. If the federal adjustment results in a DC tax refund, you must file for the refund within 180 days.

Mail the amended return and attachments to the Office of Tax and Revenue, PO Box 601, Washington DC 20044-0601.

Refund offset

If you have other DC tax liabilities, we may apply all or part of any overpayment to offset them.

Final Return

If you have ended business operations, fill in the final return oval on Page 1.

Estimated tax payments

A corporation must file a declaration of estimated franchise tax if it expects its DC franchise tax liability to exceed $1000 for the taxable year. See the Form D-20ES Declaration of Estimated Franchise Tax for Corporations booklet for details. You will be automatically assessed a penalty for any underpayment of DC estimated tax.

Corporate tax rate and minimum tax

The tax rate is 9.975 percent on your “total District taxable income” from line 36. The minimum tax due is $100, even if you have a loss.

Incomplete forms will delay processing

Complete all items on the Form D-20, otherwise, OTR will send the return back to you to complete.

Taxable year beginning and ending

Enter your taxable year beginning and ending dates in the areas provided on page 1. It can be either a calendar year or a fiscal year. If this is your last return because you went out of business, also fill in the final return oval on page 1.

NAICS Business Activity Codes

Please refer to the FR-500, Combined Business Tax Registration Application for a listing of business codes. You may also visit our website — www.taxpayerservicecenter.com to view FR-500 and the business activity codes. Please fill in this information on page one of your return.

All entries on the return and attachments are dollars only

Enter only whole dollar amounts on the tax forms and schedules. Do not enter cents.

Help us identify your forms and attachments

Write your FEIN, tax period, business name and address on any statements submitted with the return or filed separately. The FEIN is used for tax administration purposes only.

Signature and verification

An authorized officer of the corporation must sign the return. A receiver, trustee, or assignee must sign any return that he/she is required to file for the corporation. Any person who prepared the return for compensation must also sign the return and provide the necessary identification number. If a firm or corporation prepares a return, it should be signed in the name of the entity. The signature requirement does not apply when a taxpayer's regular employee prepares the return.

Specific Instructions

Negative amounts

If you enter a negative amount on a line, fill in the oval to the left of the entry where it states: “Fill in if minus”, do not use a minus sign.

Allocation and apportionment required

Any corporation carrying on a trade or business in DC and other jurisdictions must apportion its business income among DC and the other jurisdictions.

Apportion DC net income from trade or business activities using the appropriate apportionment formula. See D-20, Schedule F.

All non-business income must be allocated. See the next page.

Non-business income allocation

Non-business income

Allocate items of non-business income to DC. The following gains and losses from sales or other dispositions are allocated to DC:

- Real property located in DC (other than realty used in the trade or business whether held for sale or otherwise);
- Tangible personal property (other than any tangible personal property used in the trade or business whether held for sale or otherwise) if:
 - The property had a situs in DC at the time of sale; or
 - Your principal place of business is in DC and you are not taxable in the situs state; and
- Intangible personal property (other than intangible personal property of any kind used in the trade or business whether held for sale or otherwise) is allocable to DC if the taxpayer's principal place of business is in DC.

Allocate to DC net rents and royalties from real property located in DC.

Allocate to DC non-business interest and dividends derived from sources in DC unless specifically excluded from tax and subject to apportionment as business income.

Allocate to DC, non-business rents and royalties from patents, copyrights, trademarks, service marks, secret processes and formulas, franchises and other like property (if not used in the trade or business). These royalties are allocated according to the patent's location or use, or where the copyrighted material is published or used. If DC is the principal place of business of a corporate entity, not subject to tax anywhere else, then the rent or royalty income is allocable to DC.

Income from the sale of tangible personal property to the United States Government by a corporation that has its principal place of business outside DC is income from DC sources if the property is delivered from outside DC for use in DC.

All other non-business income derived from sources in DC is allocable to DC.

Where income is allocable among DC and other jurisdictions allocate all expenses, losses, and other deductions incurred in the production of the income in the same way. Losses incurred in the production of non-business income are allowable if profits from the transaction would be taxable.

Gross Income

D-20, page 1, line-by-line

Line 1 Gross receipts, minus returns and allowances

Enter the total gross receipts from sales and operations, minus returns and allowances.

Line 2 Cost of goods sold and/or operations

Enter the figure from D-20 Schedule A, Line 7. If the production, manufacture, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-determining factor in the trade or business, you must take inventories of merchandise at the start and end of the tax year. You may value them at cost or cost or market, whichever is lower; or by another IRS-approved method. You must continue to use the inventory method you choose until you get permission from OTR to change. If the inventories do not agree with the balance sheet figures, attach a statement explaining the reason for the differences.

Cost of operations (where inventories are not an income-determining factor): If the amount entered on Line 2, page 1, includes an amount associated with the cost of operations, attach a detailed statement showing: (1) salaries and wages; and (2) other costs in detail.

Line 3 Gross profit from sales and/or operations

Line 1 minus Line 2. Enter the result on Line 3.

Line 4 Dividends

Enter the total of all dividends reported on D-20 Schedule B, Page 3. Do not include Subpart F income (as defined in IRC §952); and dividends from wholly-owned subsidiaries.

Include on Line 29(a) all dividends from sources outside DC that are not trade or business income. Dividends received by corporations, financial institutions, or investment firms are business income not subject to allocation. Do not include dividends paid on securities issued by the United States or its instrumentalities, if it is non-business income.

Dividends received from the following corporations with their principal place of business in DC are non-business income:

- Corporations subject to this franchise tax;
- Insurance corporations, including bonding companies and real estate title insurance companies; and
- Banks, if the bank dividends were paid to a bank-holding company.

Line 5. Interest

Enter all interest which the corporation received or is credited with during the tax year, including interest paid on obligations of a State, Territory of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions, except those of DC.

Exclude interest income on obligations or securities issued by the United States or its instrumentalities if it was included in federal gross income.

Interest received by a corporation not engaged in a trade or business in DC is not considered income from DC sources if the interest is from one of the following organizations with a principal place of business in DC:

- Corporations subject to this franchise tax;
- Insurance corporations, including bonding companies and real estate title insurance companies; and
- Banks, if the bank interest was paid to a bank-holding company.

Report this non-business interest income on Line 29(a). When interest income is related to trade or business activity carried on or engaged in, in DC enter it on Line 5, do not enter it on Line 29(a).

Line 6 Gross rental income

Enter the gross amount you received from real or personal property rental.

Enter rental income related to a trade or business on Line 6, do not enter it on line 29(a).

Note: DC does not allow either the 30 or 50 per cent additional bonus depreciation allowed under federal law. If you claimed this bonus depreciation on your federal return, reduce the depreciation you claim on the D-20 by that amount. Attach a computation showing that your DC claimed depreciation does not include the bonus depreciation and that the basis of the depreciated property for DC tax purposes has not been reduced by the additional bonus depreciation amount. DC also does not allow the additional IRC §179 expenses. If you claimed these additional expenses on your federal return, reduce the expenses taken on your D-20 by that additional amount.

Line 7 Royalties

Report royalty income and related expenses in the same manner as rental income and rental expenses. Royalties from patents you developed from the licensing of processes or a trade name and sales of know-how are business income.

Line 8(a) Net Capital Gain

Capital gains or losses are treated in the same manner as they are for federal corporation income tax purposes. (See detailed instructions on federal Schedule D, Form 1120, Corporation Income Tax Return.) IRC §1231 gains are business income.

Note: Since the additional federal bonus depreciation is not allowed for DC tax purposes, recalculate the capital gain/loss you reported on your federal return without taking into account the additional federal bonus depreciation. Attach a statement showing the adjustment.

Line 8(b) Ordinary gain (loss) from Part II, Federal Form 4797

Enter the total ordinary gain (or loss) from federal Form 4797 Sales of Business Property. Attach a copy of your Form 4797 to your D-20 return.

Line 9 Other Income

Enter the total income not reported elsewhere on the return; attach a detailed statement. Enter International Banking Facility income on Lines 9 and 29(a); attach a detailed statement listing the source of this income. Do not enter other income related to a trade or business on Line 29(a); enter it on line 9.

Line 10 Total gross income

Add lines 3 through 9.

Deductions

You are allowed ordinary and necessary deductions if the income they are related to is subject to the DC corporation franchise tax; and subject to IRC limitations either directly or through the inclusion of this income in the determination of the DC apportionment factor.

Line 11 Compensation of officers

Enter the total compensation for all officers shown on D-20 Schedule C, page 3. Include compensation for services rendered in any other capacity, except salaries connected with the production of income from U.S. Treasury securities included on Line 29(b).

Line 12 Salaries and wages

Enter all salaries and wages not deducted elsewhere on the return (except salaries connected with the production of income from U.S. Treasury securities). Do not include wages connected with computing the Economic Development Zone incentives credit.

Line 13 Repairs

Enter the cost of incidental repairs, including labor, supplies, and other items that do not add to the value or appreciably prolong the property's life. You may charge to a capital account, expenditures for new buildings, machinery, equipment and/or permanent improvements or betterments that increase the value or appreciably prolong the life of the property.

Line 14 Bad debts

Report bad debts in the same manner as you report them for federal tax purposes. Attach a copy of the information you submitted with your federal return.

Line 15 Rent

Enter rent paid or accrued for business property in which the corporation has no equity. If any property is leased from an affiliated corporation, or from one of the stockholders, attach a statement giving the lessor's name and address, rent paid and a description of the property rented.

Line 16 Taxes

Any taxes reported on federal Form 1120 must be reported on D-20 Schedule D, page 3. Do not include these taxes:

- Income and excess profit taxes;
- DC franchise tax; and
- Taxes assessed for local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed.

Line 17 Interest

Enter interest paid or accrued on business debt. If any interest income is not taxable, then the related interest expense is not deductible.

Line 18 Contributions or gifts

Enter contributions or gifts made in the tax year if no part benefits any private stockholder or individual. This deduction may not exceed 15% of the net income of the business (Line 26). Attach detailed information about contributions and gifts in a separate statement. Contribution and gift carry-overs are not allowed.

Line 19 Amortization

Enter the amortization amount from your federal Form 4562 Depreciation and Amortization. Attach a copy of your Form 4562.

Line 20 Depreciation

Enter the depreciation amount from your federal Form 4562. The depreciation allowance does not apply to inventories, stock-in-trade, or land. You must use the same depreciation method on your DC return as that used on your federal return. Attach a copy of your Form 4562 to your Form D-20.

Note: If you claimed the additional federal bonus depreciation or additional IRC §179 expenses on your federal return, do not claim them on your D-20. In addition, do not reduce the basis of the depreciable property for DC tax purposes by the additional federal bonus depreciation. Attach a statement showing your computation.

A QHTC may deduct the lesser of $40,000 or the actual cost of personal property, as described in IRC §179(d)(1).

Line 21 Depletion

Enter the depletion amount shown on your federal form. Attach an explanation of how you determined the depletion allowance.

Line 22 Advertising

Enter the amount paid or incurred during the year for ordinary and necessary advertising that has a reasonable relationship to the business activities.

Line 23 Pension, profit-sharing plans

Enter the amount of contributions made to employees' pension, profit sharing, stock bonus and annuity plans. These are deductible to the same extent as they are on your federal return.

Line 24 Other deductions

Other Form D-20 schedules

Schedule E – Reconciliation of the Net Income Reported on Federal and DC Returns

Complete this schedule to explain any differences between the net income reported on your federal return and that reported on your D-20.

Schedule F – DC Apportionment Factor

Corporations engaging in a trade or business both in and outside DC must use property, payroll and sales as the three factor formula to apportion their business income. Corporations domiciled in DC and not subject to tax elsewhere must report 100% of their net business income as DC income and allocate 100% of their non-business income to DC.

Corporations carrying on a trade or business in DC and in other jurisdictions must apportion trade or business income to DC. Multiply the total income by a fraction. The numerator is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor. The denominator is three, reduced by the number of factors having no denominator.

Financial institutions must use a two-factor formula, determined by multiplying the financial institution's base (net income for the tax year) by an apportionment fraction. The numerator is the sum of the payroll factor plus the gross income factor; the denominator is 2.

• Property Factor

- The property factor is a fraction; the numerator is the average value of real and tangible personal property you owned or rented in DC during the tax year. The denominator is the average value of all real and tangible personal property you owned or rented during the tax year. Do not include in the numerator or the denominator any property or portion of property, not used to produce business income.
- Transportation companies, in addition to that stated above, have a numerator which also includes the portion of the average value of vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, all watercraft and other equipment used during the taxable period to transport persons and property both in and outside DC. This portion is determined by comparing the total miles per unit of equipment traveled in DC with the total mileage traveled everywhere by each class of property.
- Railroad companies – the classes of property are those you must report for DC personal property tax purposes (DC Code §47-1512).

For property used in any activities where the income from which is allocable or apportionable, you may use any method that properly reflects the portion of the average value used to arrive at the property factor. This is subject to the approval of OTR.

Property you own is valued at its original cost to you plus the cost of any additions and improvements you made. If you cannot determine your original cost or if the cost is zero, value the property at its market value when you acquired it.

Property rented to you is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. This is the annual rental paid by the taxpayer minus any annual rental received by the taxpayer from sub-rentals, if the rental and sub-rental rates are reasonable. Net annual rental also includes amounts paid or accrued for property use or rental of facilities of another. This applies whether paid as rent, as reasonable compensation for use or under any other designation, pursuant to statutory enactment, lease, or rental agreement of any kind, contract, or otherwise. Do not include payments for leased property capitalized for federal tax purposes as rent. You may only include these payments in this factor to the extent of their capitalized value for federal tax purposes. If OTR determines that any net annual rental rate or sub-rental rate is unreasonable, or if a nominal or zero rate is charged, OTR may determine and apply a rate that reasonably reflects the property's rental value.

To determine the property's average value, average the value at the start and at the end of the tax period. You may use monthly or quarterly values during the tax period, if necessary, to properly reflect the average value of the property (subject to OTR approval).

- Payroll Factor

- The payroll factor is a fraction; the numerator is the total compensation you paid to or accrued for persons performing services in DC during the tax year. The denominator is the total compensation you paid or accrued everywhere during the tax year. The value of compensation paid or accrued other than in cash is its fair market value on the date of payment or accrual. However, do not include compensation paid or accrued to employees for personal services rendered in the production of non-business income in either the numerator or denominator. Do not include payments to independent contractors.

Transportation companies — the numerator of the payroll factor also includes the total compensation paid or accrued to employees employed on vehicles, rolling stock, aircraft, watercraft and other equipment you used during the taxable period to transport persons and property between DC and other jurisdictions. To determine this, apply the percentage computed (as described in the property factor) to the total compensation.

If compensation is paid or accrued for services the income from which can be allocated or apportioned, you may use any method that will properly reflect the portion of the average value used to arrive at the payroll factor. This is subject to the approval of OTR.

Compensation is paid or accrued in DC if:

- The individual's services are performed entirely in DC; or
- The individual's services are performed in DC and other jurisdictions, but the services performed outside DC are incidental to the individual's services in DC; or
- Some of the individual's services are performed in DC and:
 - (1) the base of operations is in DC or if there is no base of operations in DC, the place from which services are directed or controlled is in DC; or
 - (2) the base of operations or place from which services are directed or controlled is not in DC, or in any state where some part of the services are performed, but the individual's residence is in DC.

Financial institutions — the payroll factor is a fraction; the numerator is the total the financial institution paid or accrued in DC as compensation. The denominator is the total compensation the financial institution paid or accrued everywhere during the tax year. Compensation is paid in DC if it is paid to an employee located or having a regular presence in DC. Any compensation paid to an employee located in a state where the financial institution is not taxable is treated as having been paid in DC, if the institution's principal office is in DC.

- Sales Factor

- The sales factor, except for transportation companies, is a fraction; the numerator is the taxpayer's total sales in DC during the tax year. The denominator is the taxpayer's total sales everywhere during the tax year.

- Transportation companies — the sales factor is a fraction; the numerator is the total revenue units the company first received as originating or connecting traffic at a point in DC. Add to this the total revenue units the company discharged or unloaded at a point in DC, upon termination of the transportation movement or transfer to a connecting carrier. The denominator is twice the total revenue units originated everywhere during the tax year. One ton of freight equals one revenue unit; ten passengers equal one revenue unit. If the company's revenue is predominantly from transporting passengers, you may use the number of passengers loaded and discharged, in place of originating and terminating tonnage.
- Tangible personal property sales, including sales to the U.S. Government, are considered to take place in DC, no matter where title is transferred, FOB point, or other sales conditions, if the property:
 - Is delivered or shipped to a purchaser in DC; or
 - Has an ultimate destination in DC, after all transportation (including the purchaser's) is complete; or
 - Is delivered or shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other storage place in DC to a jurisdiction outside DC — and you are not taxable in that jurisdiction.
- Except for transportation companies, non-tangible personal property sales are considered to take place in DC if the income-producing activity or service is performed:
 - In DC; or
 - The proportion of the income-producing activity or service performed in DC is greater than that performed in any other jurisdiction, based on performance cost.
- Financial institutions — the sales factor is a gross income factor being a fraction; the numerator is the financial institution's gross income in DC during the tax year. The denominator is the financial institution's total gross income during the tax year.
 - A financial institution whose commercial domicile is in DC and which is subject to tax in another jurisdiction, includes in the numerator of the DC income factor, any income the other jurisdiction does not require to be included in the numerator of its income factor.
 - If the predominant part of the secured property is or will be located in DC, then treat all interest, loan placement fees, discount, net gain, and other forms of gross income from each loan, secured primarily by real estate, as located in DC.
 - If the loan originated in DC, treat all interest, loan placement fees, discount and net gain from unsecured loans, and loans secured primarily by tangible or intangible personal property, or any resulting interest as located in DC.
 - For any financial institution whose commercial domicile is in DC, treat income from securities, investments, money market instruments, or any other source not required to be apportioned to outside DC, as located in DC. This income includes, but is not limited to, interest, dividends and net gains.
 - Treat all fees, commissions, service charges and other forms of gross income from sales of depository or financial services as located in DC if the service is performed in DC. Include sales or services performed in two or more tax jurisdictions in the numerator of the jurisdiction where the most income-producing activity is performed, based on performance cost.

- If the property is located in DC, treat gross income from leases of tangible property as located in DC.
- If the financial institution's principal office is located in DC, then treat all income (previously described) that is located in a jurisdiction where the financial institution is not subject to tax as being located in DC.

General

If your use of the income allocation and apportionment rules results in a tax that does not fairly represent your tax liability on income from your trade or business or from non-business sources in DC, you may petition for, or OTR may require, if reasonable:

- a separate accounting, unless the entity is conducting a unitary business;
- exclusion of one or more of the factors;
- inclusion of one or more factors that reflect the extent of your trade or business in DC; or
- use of any other method to effect a fair allocation and apportionment of income.

Economic Development Zone Incentives Credit

Supporting Documentation Required If you are claiming an Economic Development Zone Incentives (EDZI) credit against your DC franchise tax liability, you MUST attach to your return:

1. A copy of the DC Council resolution approving the qualification for any credits claimed;
2. A certification of eligible employees issued by the DC Department of Employment Services; and
3. A completed EDZI Credit Worksheet.

The EDZI Amendment Act allows a qualified business, under certain circumstances, to take various credits against its franchise tax liability. (The maximum annual credit is $7500.) A qualified business is one that is approved as qualified under Section 5 of EDZI by the DC Office of Economic Development. You MUST complete the worksheet below and include it with the other attachments to your return. The following credits are allowed under EDZI to qualified businesses:

1. A credit against the franchise tax in an amount equal to 50 percent of the wages of all certified employees who meet the requirements of Section 10(b) of EDZI;

2. A credit against the business' franchise tax in an amount equal to 50 percent of the insurance premiums attributable to all employees for whom it obtains employer liability insurance under the District of Columbia Workers' Compensation Act of 1979; and
3. A rent credit for lessors against the business' franchise tax. The credit allowed is the difference between the rental market value of the space leased to a licensed non-profit child care center and the actual rent stated in the lease agreement as indicated in the DC Council resolution approving the qualification of the business. A non-profit child care center is a child development center as defined in Section 10 of EDZI.

A credit carry forward for five years is available for any EDZI credit not used in a previous year. The maximum amount that may be claimed in any year is $7500, including any carry forward.
